Tutoring Experience

My journey as a tutor began shortly after I graduated from Oxford University. I spent a year teaching English in Italy, working with students aged 11-18, helping them improve their language skills. Upon returning to the UK, I focused on tutoring History, Latin, and English for IB, A-Level, and IGCSE students. Over the past six years, I've guided over 100 students to success in their exams, with many securing places at top universities. My teaching philosophy revolves around creating an engaging and supportive learning environment, tailored to each student's unique needs. I also prepare students for the HAT (History Aptitude Test), offering insights and strategies to tackle the exam with confidence. My goal is not just to improve grades but to inspire a genuine interest in the subjects I teach.
